Blue BELT · LEVEL 5

Advance Reading Rules

Welcome to the Blue Belt Level!

When you have mastered the rules included on this level, you will be able to move on to the brown and black levels to become a faster and more accurate reader.

Contents:

Page 1	Words ending with a Ches and a Pasach, a dot in middle of the letter.
Page 2	Words ending with a Hey and a Pasach, review

Page 3 Words ending with a Yud

Page 4 Words ending with a Yud and a Vav, review

Note:

This blue level does not include the 'Trop' - the notes used when reading from the Torah.

Remember: Practice makes perfect!

Yes! Getting the hang of these rules really opens the door to soooo much more!

Now I'll be able to follow a prayer service or read a Torah Book myself!

at the END of a word

An with a - at the end of a word,

The n is patient, first the 'ah' is heard,

Then you read 'ch' - which together make 'Ach'

Read this word [n], it says; koAch

3"00

at the end of a word

This is NOT read as 'Hah', but instead as 'Ah'!

(Note: This is only if there is a 'ah' vowel under the \(\pi\))

At the End of a Word

When $\ref{eq:sigma}$ comes at the end of a word, the $\ref{eq:sigma}$ is NOT pronounced.

The ending is read as $\ref{eq:sigma}$.
